Conference agenda  Water, Growth and Stability
The regional project Sustainable Use of Transboundary Water Resources and Water Security Management (WATER SUM) addresses water-related challenges and promotes regional cooperation in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) through two project components: Water Resources Management Good Practices and Knowledge Transfer (WATER POrT); and Water Security in Local Communities (WaSe).

This conference marks the end of the second year of implementation of the WATER SUM project and is organised in cooperation with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade of Hungary as a milestone event towards the 2016 Budapest Water Summit. The conference will bring together stakeholders from the MENA region and other countries to:

- support the MENA region and its water stakeholders in advancing water management at national and local level, while also shoring up regional cooperation and engagement as well as contributing to the identification of viable tools and solutions;
- stimulate the more sustainable use of water resources, stronger cooperation between pivotal actors, and a strategic approach to climate change adaptation;
- coordinate efforts among MENA countries and other regions to facilitate the mutual transfer of knowledge and good practices;
- take stock of the WATER SUM project and strengthen synergies with other programmes and efforts;
- promote a comprehensive and integrated approach to water security and ecosystem services and expound on the increasingly interrelated nature of our global resources systems and the impact on water sustainability; and
- lay the groundwork for assisting regional and global efforts in the water sector, including the 2016 Budapest Water Summit and the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.
